Mountain Astrologer Anzeigen

Zwischen 2009 und 2013 platzierte ich fünfundzwanzig leicht surreale Anzeigen in The Mountain Astrologer, einem prominenten US-amerikanischen Astrologiemagazin. Es waren drei leicht verschiedene Anzeigen.

Details

Alle Anzeigen hatten US Business Card Masse, 3.5" × 2" (89 mm × 51 mm). Hier sind übersetzter Text und Bild für die erste Anzeige, die erstmals in der Februar/März 2009 Ausgabe erschien, plus später noch fünf Mal zwischen Februar/März 2010 und Oktober/November 2010:

Schliesslich noch ein Scan einer Magazineiseite, mit fast der letzten Anzeige, unterhalb vom Artikel "Watching the Watchers: The Cryptic Charts of the NSA and Edward Snowden" ("Die Beobachter beobachten: Die kryptischen Horoskope der NSA und von Edward Snowden") in der Oktober/November 2013 Ausgabe von The Mountain Astrologer:

efforts related to legal wire tapping in addition to other allegations dating back to at least 2005, tend to cast serious doubt that the agency's leadership is living up to the reality of their national responsibilities today, to put it as diplomatically as possible.

Saturn in the 3rd house is also associated with "mixed discipline and practicality" as well as "mathematical and scientific ability," according to astrologer Frances Sabin and Louis Arden.¹⁷ While it's questionable whether the NSA is fully meeting the law-abiding component of its North Node directive, there's no doubt it's fulfilling the mathematical and scientific components. The agency is, after all, home to the greatest concentration of computing power on the planet. Furthermore, the vast majority of its employees and contractors have backgrounds in advanced mathematics, engineering, linguistics, or other intensely mental disciplines. The NSA's mathematical and scientific capabilities (3rd house) are so developed that a team of NSA cryptanalysts took less than a month to crack three of the four coded messages on the CIA's famed "Crypter" machine (see Figure 2, page 25.) By comparison, it took the CIA's own cryptanalysts eight years to perform the same feat.¹⁸

Since the NSA's Saturn is in Libra, the sign of "the other," part of its North Node imperative includes taking a disinterested approach to communication (3rd house) with people who speak other 3rd house languages. Today the agency is widely believed to possess computing hardware (Saturn) that not only detects keywords (3rd house) but can actually discern the context and deeper meaning of entire conversations, regardless of the language in which they are spoken.

The NSA's Saturn in Libra is closely conjunct Neptune, the planet of ideal vision and illusion, distortions and self-deception. According to astrologer Sue Tompkins, Saturn-Neptune conjunctions are associated with "health issues and food poisoning."¹⁹ This conjunction is in the 3rd house of communication and data sharing, so the "health issues and food poisoning" indicated by this aspect would involve things like computer viruses, hacking incidents, phone line "taps," and information streams from "Big Data" that are as compromised as the food supplies from Big Ag.

Uranus in the 12th House: The Ghosts in the Machine

The final component of the NSA's North Node directive is attributed to Aquarius's modern planetary ruler, Uranus, the planet of radical change and rapid progress, advanced technology and experimental methodologies. Disruption from the status quo and sudden breaks with reality, Uranus-like advancements and transformations the furthest. The NSA's Uranus is placed in the 12th house of the unconscious and the super conscious, intuition and meditation, spirit and etheric, all that is just out of the same time. Astrologer

Howard Sperber associates Uranus in the 12th with access to the "total's consciousness of ancestral wisdom — experiences accrued in the past and inherited through previous generations," as well as interest in parapsychology and enterprises like mind-reading.²⁰ The NSA may not be interested in actual parapsychology, but its capacity to store massive amounts of data files, in a manner of speaking, give it access to the collective experiences accrued by several generations of hundreds of millions of our billions of people around the world. According to James Marchal, the agency has plugged a great deal of the stored data into a computer system called "Aquarius" (Advanced Quantum Accessing for Intelligence), an artificial intelligence-powered black box that agents can query to find out what person it thinks about subject "X."²¹ The system is, in effect, a mind-reading machine.

Astrologer Bill Tarnes associates Uranus in the 12th house with "telegraphic medium" created by technology as well as "ghosts found wandering dark chambers."²² In true Uranus 12th house fashion, there are more systems also being that the NSA's advanced super-computer networks have spawned new forms of artificial intelligence that now roam the dark chambers of NSA head quarters like telegraphic ghosts.²³ Such systems are, of course, impossible to control or deny, but sudden access to highly intelligent operations in the sort of experience-based, disproportionately often among people with Uranus natal advancements in the 12th house (psychic phenomena, ghost mediums, E reading etc.) this placement indicates that the agency likely has access to such techniques the general population would
