Timeline

Some events related to exactphilosophy. . .

- 1998 First discovery disclosure written down, followed by one in 2000 and one in 2001, plus all three as a collection in 2001. Unpublished at the time, except each time their cryptographic hashes/timestamps/signatures as proof of discovery.
- 2001 Idea to describe star signs (zodiac signs) as transitions between the four classical elements. The sun was in Aquarius, most likely it was already February.
Discovery disclosures. March and May.
Domain exactphilosophy.net registered. 19 March at 19:56:24 CET from Adliswil.
- 2002 Website exactphilosophy.net goes live. 20 June at 9:00 Adliswil. Publication of A few new discoveries in physics along with its initial one-page review. Announced in various Usenet newsgroups at the same time.
- 2004 Idea to define elements in terms of in/out (space), rest/move (time) and their transitions. First time publicly visible 20 May 2004 at 00:24:44 UTC, in a post titled simply "Disclosure" to the Usenet newsgroup alt.astrology.tropical. In the post, which I had posted 19 May 2004 about 15 minutes before midnight Swiss time, I say that I had the idea "last Wednesday (2004-05-18)", which in my view would have been Tue 18 May, but maybe was Wed 12 or even 19 May.
- 2005 Current design of this website, centered around the above idea. Content generated using LaTeX. Fox icon 17 September ca. 7:50 Adliswil.
In late December the first version with already the four basic sections 'space and time', 'metamorphosis', 'greek philosophy' and 'i ching'.
- 2010 Added 'p' comet to fox icon, "foxyfox". 11 October 19:45 Adliswil.
- 2011 Ideas related to "Artemis, the Secret Surreal World of the Moon". Published starting December 2014 to the astro.com forum in the so-called "Mondfaden".
- 2016 Article Elementary Star Signs, first in German, then in English. Late July.
Specific idea how to arrange trigrams in a circle as elemental transitions between the four "Greek" elements. 4 Aug 2016 in the evening in Adliswil.
Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net 2016. August.
First version of the article Elemental changes in the I Ching. September. Mailed to dozens of historians world-wide.
- 2017 Article 'Deep Learning and astrology' (in 'Astro teasers' now). December.
Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net 2017. December.
- 2018 Publication of the book Elementare Sternzeichen in January and its translation to English Elementary Star Signs in March. Advertised in half a dozen astrological publications world-wide, six public reviews.
Switched (temporarily until Dec 2019) to a new, more formal potential definition of emo as the difference between two images taken in short sequence. September.

- 2019 Cover design ELEMENTAL. January.
 Articles 'White-red-black and triple moon goddess?' and 'White-red-black and the "green" goddess'. April.
 Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net 2019. May.
 Renaissance of the original idea. Moved the formal definition of emo/ero of 2018 to a later section (now in 'measurement'), as it seems not fundamental enough to reflect the immediate experience of being. December.
- 2020 Passing away of my dear parents Romeo+Suzy. January/February.
 Circumstantial evidence for how colors white-red-black relate to fire and moon, going back far into prehistory, and likely led to classical Greek elements.
 Possibly some steps closer to describing the star signs in terms of transformations between elements defined purely in terms of in/out and rest/move.
 Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net 2020. November.
 Idea that the psyche may operate almost exclusively along the circle of elements.
 Publication of the pocket book Space, Time, Elements at exactphilosophy.net. December.
 Realization that Apuleius' tasks of Psyche likely draw more on Plato's philosophy and later philosophical ideas than on mythology.
- 2021 Idea that outside ero is more inert and thus 'heavier'/denser than emo, and inside emi is more inert and thus 'heavier'/denser than eri; idea that in prehistory eri and emo would have been a single experience of life in the psyche, thus at first only three elements, colored white-red-black. January.
 Realization that findings thus far regarding the core idea of elements in terms of in/out, rest/move and their transformations, have now reached "critical mass"; their equivalence to ancient elements can now be shown practically without gaps. Maybe a conclusion, a natural end of my research has been reached. February.
 Publication of the pocket book Space, Time, Elements at exactphilosophy.net, Second Edition. April.
Sleeping Beauty Dreaming. Summer.
 Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net. October.
 First visit of the harvester of the Swiss National Library. December.
- 2022 Archive 'noindex'.
 Article Cargo Cult Astrology, also in German. Published in December.
- 2023 Core web in German. 8 July 2023 at 20:32 CEST Adliswil.
 Special article Amber's seen and not Heard prank? July.
- 2024 Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net (edition 2024). January.
 Conscious insight that my approach around the core idea is generally via a contemplating self, for which outside things tend to rest and making them move tends to require energy, while inside things tend to move and making them rest tends to require energy, whereas for a self that gets drawn into a chain of thought that chain of thought would usually appear both moving and active. October.
 Via 'contemplatio' and 'theōría', Plato's cave seems to be more closely related to my perspective on active/passive inside than expected and maybe the best way to start telling the world about my findings. I guess, I might cultivate the "three mounds on my forehead":  $\chi\phi$ , the book twins 'Space Time Elements' / 'Raum Zeit Elemente' and of course the one I keep dreaming of. 29 October.
 Sleeping Beauty Dreaming of ELEMENTAL...
- 2025 Core idea most likely unrecoverably gone, no future. Maybe a little bit of future for smaller ideas on the side. But they are already published.
 Publication of the book exactphilosophy.net (final edition 2025). May.

Turning the page after publishing the book 5.5.25\*, it is not so obvious if just one logical fallacy early on in the reasoning is sufficient to annihilate an idea that would otherwise reproduce so much of life and the world from a single, simple perspective. Hence maybe better be pragmatic about this, mention it, investigate if it leads somewhere, or else proceed where else things might want to proceed, continue the gardening. In April I registered also xphi.ch; will see if maybe one of the child sites would grow; just let things grow, simplify things. Would things be better now if I had sold not a mere 50+ but 50 million books related to  $x\phi$ ? I guess not; the core idea here is so fundamental for all life in the universe that only all or nothing can be a significant result, except for some ideas on the side, of course. Maybe I will just keep dreaming that, and that also after I am gone things could suddenly grow, or maybe not... 28 April 2025.

* Well, almost; all is ready, the statutory copy for the Swiss National Library is already wrapped up, will just have to take it to the post office in a few days...

A day later there is already the very thin new moon crescent visible in the west. The core idea is beautiful. Very beautiful. Singularly beautiful. Because from very few assumptions it produces a view of the world that is compatible with practically all views and beliefs from prehistory to now, scientific or not.

If you let go inside, things start to flow, that is at the core of the idea.

But back also to the everyday, mundane flow of things:

Since 5 May 2025 a new section '* science' exists here, which will probably just point to xphi.ch, which I reregistered 12 April 2025 at 21:14 CEST from Adliswil, via Hostpoint based in Rapperswil-Jona.

What will be there will be basically (at least initially) articles dedicated thoroughly to single topics. Like an article about the range of feelings or also probably one about elemental changes in the zodiac in time, and so on.

In the meantime, here I hope to leisurely focus on maybe finding a way to recover my core idea also formally, with maybe little besides that, but never say never...

But que sera, sera...
